

Questions to ask as you write a paper

What are your three most important take-home messages of this paper?

Why is your paper different?
What's unique about this piece of research?

What does your research add?
How do you build on existing research?

What evidence do you have?
How robust is your evidence?

What are the strengths of your work?

What are the limitations of your work?